Authors Benefits:

Authors of the published articles will have the possibility to share their knowledge with interested in the area readers.

Expectations and Requirements:

1. All submitted materials should be written exclusively for the magazine.
2. The publisher reserves the rights to publish the articles in another issue of Quality Matters if decided.
3. We do not accept articles whose primary intention is to sell or promote a particular proprietary product, service, method or company. For advertising please contact our advertising department at: advertising@quality-matters.org
4. The editorial team reserves the right to edit the articles for length and readability.
5. All submitted materials should be in English.
6. Please be aware of the style of the magazine which is trying to be more popular and non-academic and avoid writing in such a way. A tip from us: a joke or fun popular culture reference will make people remember your article much more possible 😊
7. Submitted articles should be in Microsoft Word DOC.
8. If your article has pictures, please make sure they are in a 300 dpi resolution or higher. If possible please send the pictures as separate files as well.
9. By submitting an article proposal the author agrees with the conditions mentioned above.
